Adlai's Phone Lines Reported Tapped

LOS ANGELES, July 12 (UPI)—A spokesman for the Stevenson-for-President campaign committee said last night that its telephone lines at the Democratic National Convention had been tapped.

John Sharon said he was so informed by a security officer for the Democratic National Committee.

He told reporters that the officer said that the Stevenson lines from inside the Sports Arena to a trailer outside, and one from the trailer to hotel headquarters, both had been tapped.

Mr. Sharon would not speculate on who might have tapped the lines.
